PLEASE CIRCLE THE CORRECT ANSWER

1. T F Once you have confessed Jesus as your Lord, you have your ticket to heaven.

2. T F A Christian that bears absolutely no fruit is taken out of the vine by the Father.

3. T F A Christian can have true Bible faith without any works (i.e. without doing anything in the kingdom of God.)

4. T F When you are born again, the fruit of faithfulness will immediately be evidenced and fully mature.

5. T F Faithfulness is the one characteristic that must be evidenced in a person's life before he can be chosen for any form of ministry.

6. T F If a person is called to be a deacon and is 100% faithful in that ministry, he will receive a greater reward in heaven than a Pastor who won many souls to the Lord but was not 100% faithful in his ministry.

7. T F Anyone who starts out in the Christian race without first calculating the cost, and then drops out is not fit for the kingdom of God.

8. T F Christians are the salt of the earth. A Christian who loses his saltiness by turning his back on God is not fit for God or man and is thrown out.

9. T F We should be prepared to follow Christ's example as He washed the disciples feet and do the lowliest task allotted to us in the kingdom of God with all our heart, for the servant is not greater than his Master.
